

HLTINFO05

This version was released in HLT Health Training Package release 3.0 and meets the requirements of the 2012 Standards for Training Packages. Significant changes to the elements and performance criteria. New evidence requirements for assessment, including volume and frequency requirements.

Significant change to knowledge evidence.

Supersedes HLTIN402C - Maintain infection control standards in office practice settings

This course is the minimum requirement for Qld Health Legislation for beauty, piercing and tattoo industry

Each state has their own minimum requirements, and this course does cater for the diversity.

Assignments can be accomplished face to face, by video or face to face conferencing.

Some assessments require video evidence of operating an autoclave and cleaning area.

Face-to-face practical session with a trainer is avail for the assessment if required

SKILLS

Gain the skills and knowledge to provide safe Cosmetic Tattooing, Tattooing, Laser & Piercing services

Work at your own pace with ongoing trainer support and or face to face coaching.

PERFORMANCE EVIDENCE

The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in the elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks, and manage contingencies in the context of the job role. There must be evidence that the candidate has:

- integrated the maintenance of infection control with skin penetration technical skills that individually or in combination demonstrate:
  - identification of potential cross contamination risks, protecting self and client from infection risks
  - choosing and using appropriate cleaning, disinfection and sterilising procedures for instruments, equipment and equipment attachments and work surfaces
- use of correct steriliser operation procedures:
  - packaging of items
  - loading /monitoring /validation /calibration
  - documentation requirements
- disposing of waste and sharps
  - provided an oral or written review of workplace compliance with relevant state or territory and local council laws, regulations, and requirements for skin penetration treatments.

KNOWLEDGE EVIDENCE

- The candidate must be able to demonstrate essential knowledge required to effectively complete tasks outlined in the elements and performance criteria of this unit, manage tasks, and manage contingencies in the context of the work role. This includes knowledge of:
- Australian standards AS/NZS4815 and 4187 relating to infection control in office-based health care facilities relevant state or territory legislation and guidelines relating to infection control procedures for skin penetration treatments
- local council requirements for businesses offering skin penetration treatments organisational policy and procedures relating to infection control legal responsibilities in relation to infection control, sterilising, registration or business licensing, conduct of occupation, and maintenance of premises relevant to role

- standard and additional precautions as defined by the National Health and Medical Research Council (NHMRC)
- industry codes of practice
- aetiology of infection
- sources of infection and means of transmission
- risk management in relation to infection control and practices that support infection control measures and prevent infection transmission
- cleaning, disinfection, and sterilising procedures
- procedures for responding to spills
- needle stick or sharps injury procedures for notification and response impact of premises layout and workflow on infection control risks
- manufacturer instructions in relation to cleaning, disinfecting and sterilising equipment and products
- risk management process for identifying treatment infection control risks
- workplace infection control risks.

ASSESSMENT CONDITIONS

Skills must have been demonstrated in the workplace or in a simulated environment that reflects workplace conditions. The following conditions must be met for this unit:

- use of suitable facilities, equipment, and resources, including:
  - clinical and other waste and waste disposal equipment
  - equipment for cleaning, including sterilised sharps if relevant to role
  - hand hygiene facilities and equipment, medical or client care equipment relevant to the workplace organisational infection prevention and control policies and procedures
- personal protective equipment
- WHS procedures
- modelling of industry operating conditions, including integration of problem-solving activities to which the candidate responds